

XSITE CAPITAL · CREATIVE CONTENT PROPOSAL

Clarify your profiles. Focus your voices.

A focused plan to build on what your team already does well and give each founder a recognizable content role.

PREPARED BY FREDY MFUKO | MISSION 101 MEDIA

MY RECOMMENDATION

Build on the audience you already have.

I recommend clarifying your profiles, defining three connected founder voices, and producing four repeatable video series your marketing team can distribute.

01

Clarify

Make every profile explain who you serve, what you discuss, and where the audience should go next.

02

Differentiate

Give Tenny, Leslie, and Julius distinct but connected editorial roles.

03

Produce

Turn those roles into repeatable video series your marketing team can distribute.

WHAT YOU ARE ALREADY DOING WELL

Your foundation is already strong.

This is not a reset. It is a clearer presentation of the credibility, personalities, and communities you have already built.

TRUST

Credible founders

Your professional experience and lived stories give the brand authority.

REACH

Founder audiences

Your founders already create a larger discovery network than the company page alone.

PROOF

Real activity

Your deals, events, investor education, mentorship, and community work create substance.

IDENTITY

A distinct story

Medicine, ownership, diaspora, family, and service make XSITE memorable.

PROFILE REWRITE · XSITE CAPITAL

Say who you serve and why it matters.

Your company profile should quickly connect the audience, the investment focus, and one clear next action.

MY RECOMMENDATION FOR TENNY

Own “The Deal Strategist” role.

I recommend making Tenny your clearest voice on how XSITE evaluates opportunities and makes disciplined growth decisions.

Tenny

PROFILE POSITIONING

Acquisitions · underwriting · growth judgment

I break down how multifamily opportunities are evaluated—from market selection and assumptions to the reasons a deal moves forward or gets rejected.

Deal analysis
Market selection
Underwriting assumptions
Deals XSITE rejected

MY RECOMMENDATION FOR LESLIE

Own “The Trust Builder” role.

I recommend making Leslie the voice that shows what happens after acquisition: execution, communication, and decisions when plans change.

PROFILE POSITIONING

Operations · asset management · investor communication

I explain what responsible ownership looks like after closing—how teams operate assets, communicate with investors, and respond when reality differs from the plan.

Operating decisions
Investor reporting
Performance challenges
Healthcare professional education

PROFILE REWRITE · LESLIE

Own the trust and operations conversation.

Your profiles should make your role after acquisition clear and give audiences a reason to return for operating insight.

MY RECOMMENDATION FOR JULIUS

Own “The Vision Builder” role.

I recommend connecting Julius’s broad reach to your larger story of medicine, ownership, family, Africa, and institution building.

PROFILE POSITIONING

Vision · medicine · diaspora · legacy

I explore how professionals can turn expertise and income into ownership, stronger communities, and institutions that last across generations and borders.

HOW YOUR VOICES WORK TOGETHER

One company story. Three useful perspectives.

Your founders can address the same opportunity without producing repetitive content.

TENNY

Should we buy it?

The market, numbers, assumptions, and acquisition decision.

LESLIE

How will we run it?

The operating plan, reporting, execution, and response to change.

JULIUS

Why does it matter?

The broader vision, community relevance, ownership, and legacy.

XSITE

What are the facts?

The official opportunity, disclosures, updates, and next step.

VOICES BEYOND YOUR FOUNDERS

More than a testimonial video.

I recommend making investors and mentees recurring voices whose decisions, doubts, work, and progress help your audience understand the experience.

INVESTOR SERIES

Why I Invested

What prompted the search? What created hesitation? How was XSITE evaluated? What happened after the decision? What would they ask now?

MENTEE SERIES

Beyond the Breakthrough

Where did they begin? What did they implement? What obstacle tested them? What changed? What are they working toward next?

FORMAT

Follow the journey

Film an anchor interview, then return for short progress chapters instead of treating the story as finished.

STANDARD

Keep it credible

Include uncertainty, effort, context, and relationship disclosures—not only praise or polished outcomes.

PROFILE REWRITE · BEYOND 9TO5

Make the mentorship path unmistakable.

Like the founder profiles, this account should show the current language beside a clearer, platform-specific recommendation.

POSTING + CROSS-POSTING

One story. Adapted by account.

For your team, the goal is coordinated distribution—not copying the same caption onto every profile.

SOURCE ACCOUNT

The expert leads

The founder, investor, or mentee closest to the story publishes the primary point of view.

XSITE CAPITAL

The company confirms

Adds official context, facts, disclosures, resources, and the relevant next step.

OTHER FOUNDERS

The team extends

Share a short reaction or complementary perspective rather than reposting word-for-word.

BEYOND 9T05

The mentee lens

Receives practical operator and mentorship stories—not passive-investor promotion.

A SIMPLE CONTENT RHYTHM

Four recurring series. One production system.

Instead of chasing new ideas every week, I recommend building familiarity through four repeatable formats that include your founders, investors, and mentees.

SERIES 1

Tenny · Deal Filter

A practical acquisition or underwriting breakdown.

SERIES 2

Leslie · Operator's View

A real lesson from operations or investor communication.

SERIES 3

Julius · Doctors Who Own

A perspective on ownership, vision, or legacy.

SERIES 4

Investor + Mentee Journeys

Alternating chapters from Why I Invested and Beyond the Breakthrough.

MY ROLE

Creative direction + video production.

I help turn each founder's expertise into strong video ideas, prepare the production, assemble the right crew, and direct the shoot.

I LEAD

Creative + production

Concepts · series development · briefs · interview questions · crew booking · shoot direction · edit guidance

XSITE MARKETING LEADS

Marketing + distribution

Campaign calendar · captions · publishing · community management · paid media · reporting

SHARED

Planning + review

Priorities · production schedule · brand alignment · content approvals · performance learnings

THE FIRST 90 DAYS

Create the profiles. Establish the series.

The initial engagement should prove a focused creative workflow before expanding the content program.

01

Profile reset

Finalize the XSITE and founder headlines, bios, featured links, and visual consistency.

02

Series development

Choose one repeatable video series for each founder and build the first concept bank.

03

Production

Plan and direct coordinated shoots, then guide delivery of platform-ready assets.

04

Learn

Review retention, saves, qualified responses, and feedback with the marketing team.

THE NEXT STEP

Approve the focused creative direction.

Align on the profile language, confirm each founder's content role, and select the first concepts within all four recurring series.

- 01 Approve profile positioning
- 02 Confirm founder content roles
- 03 Approve the four recurring series
- 04 Set the first production date
